OMM - Odunpazarı Modern Museum in Eskişehir, Turkey, will reopen its doors to visitors on 1 July 2020, following on from temporary closures due to Covid-19.

The museum will reopen in a safe and responsible manner, taking health and safety measures into consideration during the controlled reopening process.

In the interest of creating and maintaining a safe museum experience, new measures and protocol will be in place:

- Hand sanitiser will be available throughout the museum
- Face masks will be mandatory for museum staff and visitors
- Visitor numbers per floor will be controlled at a level below normal capacity
- Social distancing rules will be implemented inside the museum
- Cloakrooms will not be in operation
- Body temperature will be measured by a contactless device upon arrival at the museum entrance

To mark its reopening, OMM will once again exhibit its renowned exhibition Vuslat (The Union) curated by Haldun Dostoğlu, featuring works by 65 modern and contemporary artists predominantly from Turkey, and a large-scale installation piece by Japanese bamboo artist Tanabe Chikuunsai IV.

During its temporary closure, OMM remained connected with its audiences via online workshops and activities for art-lovers, which will continue as the museum opens its doors.

OMM will be open to visitors every day of the week except Monday from 11:00-17:00, and on Sundays 12:00-17:00. OMM Café and OMM Shop will also reopen, with appropriate social distancing and hygiene regulations in place.

Notes to Editors

About OMM

OMM is a modern and contemporary art museum founded by collector Erol Tabanca, in Eskişehir, northwest Turkey in 2019. Designed by Kengo Kuma and Associates (KKA), with its stacked timber design, inspired by the surrounding streetscape of Odunpazarı and its history as a timber trading market, the 4,500m² museum stands as a new landmark that reconnects the town with its heritage, and as a progressive cultural development for Eskişehir and the Central Anatolia region at large. OMM aims to contribute towards the development of cultural, social, and artistic life through dynamic and extensive public programmes, seminars, artist talks and workshops.
